ORDER

Plaintiffs have moved for an order implementing and enforcing rules for discovery of electronically stored information. [Docket No. 929]. In Defendants' Joint Response, Defendants note that the parties are in the process of discussing an agreed to order and that Plaintiffs' motion is premature. [Docket No. 953]. In Plaintiffs' Reply, Plaintiffs represent that the parties will meet and confer and inform the Court if an agreement is reached. [Docket No. 964].

The parties are given until December 1, 2006, to meet and confer and reach an agreement regarding electronic discovery. If an agreement is reached, the parties should submit an agreed to protective order to the Court. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, the Plaintiffs and the Defendants should each file, on December 1, 2006, a pleading detailing their disagreements with respect to the protective order, and submit their proposed protective order. The Court will either rule on the motions based upon the submitted pleadings, or set the matter for hearing.

It is so Ordered, this 7th day of November 2006.

United States Magistrate Judge
